

Privacy Policy for Capsoool

Capsoool uses the device camera to capture images and record videos as requested by the user.

We do not collect or store images or videos unless explicitly saved by the user.

Camera data is not shared with any third party.

We do not use the camera without user permission.

Please feel free to contact us if you have any further questions.